

Tongue-On-Cheek

Let us introduce Max Horn, official greeter at Matterhorn Nursery in Spring Valley, New York. He has not only his own business card, but his own legitimate E-mail address: woof@matterhornnursery.com, which is especially popular with children. Normally it's a turnoff when employees lick your face; however, Max offers a damp welcome mat that expresses sincere excitement that you stopped by. 🍃

I'm not it.
